

FANDF

Giving a voice to Forces families with additional needs and disabilities

FORCES ADDITIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITY FORUM (FANDF) CONFERENCE

HOSTED BY THE FANDF COMMITTEE

Tuesday 5 October 2021

09:00 to 16:15

MOD MAIN BUILDING, WHITEHALL, LONDON, SW1A 2HB

The FANDF Committee are delighted to invite you to our biennial conference. Guest speakers will include the Ministry of Defence (MOD), Children's Education Advisory Service (CEAS) and Defence Children's Services (DCS), NHS England and NHS Improvement, alongside an update on the FANDF 'Families Fighting On' report.

There will be an opportunity to ask questions during the Q&A panel with representatives from the MOD, charities and partner organisations, furthering discussion and to network.

The FANDF committee will also be hosting an informal 'Meet and Greet' evening on Monday 4 October at the Union Jack Club, where you can meet the committee and other families.

Travel, accommodation and food costs will be covered by SSAFA, the Armed Forces charity for FANDF members or for those eligible to become a FANDF member. Interested professionals are welcome also, however priority will be given to those who are FANDF members.
